

Weekly Plan for
English II: Critical Reading and Effective Writing
Ms. J. Matela

It is your responsibility to keep track of your assignments and what is due. To do this you print out the weekly plans and check items off as you complete them. You can also check on Blackboard for anything that has not been completed will have a 0.

Weekly objectives:

- Explore the novelist's use of allusion and symbolism to create impressions and convey ideas.
- Review character types, personification, and irony as storytelling elements.
- Support judgments and opinions about a literary work with direct reference to the text.
- Apply context strategies to vocabulary development.

Monday:

Log into blackboard and check for announcements. Attend Elluminate class.

Block 1—9:00am-10:00am

Block 2—10:15am-11:15am

Block 3—11:30am-12:30pm

Block 4—1:15pm-2:15pm

Here is the link for the class:

In class, we will discuss Chapters 8-10 of A Separate Peace then we will popcorn read chapter 11.

Asynchronous? watch the recorded session or attend class. You must also do the Homework regardless of which option you choose above.

Homework: Finish reading Chapter 11 of A Separate Peace

For Help: Print and read the Key terms on 11.3. Watch the recorded session.

For Challenge: Write a journal/blog of what you have read in the journaling/blogging area.

Tuesday:

Read Chapters 12 and 13

For Help: Print and read the Reading Guide and the Study guide found via the OLS 11.3.3 and/or the SparkNotes link (Read the Summary and Analysis for each chapter linked here.) Listen to the recorded version of Ms. Matela reading this story posted on the Course Documents page in the audio files folder on blackboard.

For Challenge: Write a journal/blog of what you have read in the journaling/blogging area.

Wednesday:

Log into Blackboard and check for announcements. Attend Elluminate class.

Block 1—9:00am-10:00am

Block 2—10:15am-11:15am

Block 3—11:30am-12:30pm

Block 4—1:15pm-2:15pm

Here is the link for the class:

In class, we will complete a quiz. We will go to breakout rooms and discuss Chapters 11-13.

Asynchronous? Watch the recorded session or attend class. You must also do the Homework regardless of which option you choose above.

Homework: Complete Quiz 15 A Separate Peace Chapters 8-13

For Help: Watch the recorded session. Read the Summary and Analysis for each chapter linked here.

Thursday:

Complete the Discussion Board for A Separate Peace Chapters 8-13

For Help: Post your questions and concerns on the discussion board

For Challenge: Respond to the questions and concerns of your classmates

Friday:

Assignments to be submitted:

Quiz 15 A Separate Peace Chapters 8-13

Complete the Discussion Board for A Separate Peace Chapters 8-13